GOVERNOR WILLIAM BRADFORD

GOVERNOR WILLIAM BRADFORD was the eighth great grandfather of Elizabeth Baker who was the wife of James Jackson Beeman. Elizabeth is the mother of Sara Elizabeth Beeman, wife of Lewis Albert Sweet.

Samuel Eliot Morison, editor of Bradford's own account of the History of Plymouth Plantation - 1620-1647 writes of William Bradford: "He sailed in the MAYFLOWER with his first wife, Dorothy May, whom he had married in Amsterdam in 1613. He took part in the boat expedition that explored Cape Cod, including the one that scudded into Plymouth Bay before a snowstorm and landed, traditionally on Plymouth Rock, on 11 December 1620. On returning to the MAYFLOWER at Cape Cod (now Provincetown) Harbor he learned that his "dearest consort, accidentally falling overboard, was drowned in the harbor." His failure to mention this in the History is consistent with his modest reticence about his own role of leadership in the colony; but it may be that he suspected (as do we) that Dorothy Bradford took her own life, after gazing for six weeks at the barren sand dunes of Cape Cod. For we have it from other tenderhearted women who came to New England among the pioneers, that their hearts grew faint and sick when they first beheld that wild-looking northern land, so different from the green and cultivated England they had left. Three years later, when a former member of the Leyden church, the widow Alice Southworth, came out to Plymouth with her two small boys, Bradford married her and she bore him three children.

In May 1621 after the death of Governor John Carver, William Bradford, just thruend 31, was unanimously chosen to that office, "the difficulties whereof were such that if he had not been a person of more than ordinary piety, wisdom and courage, he must have sunk under them." And he was re-elected to the same office no less that 30 times, for a total term of 33 years--every year from 1622. In other words, he was Governor of Plymouth Colony continuously from 1627 to 1656 inclusive, excepting for five years when he "by importunity gat off," according to Governor Winthrop; and in those years he was chosen an assistant to Governor Winslow or Governor Prence.

So from 1621 until his death, Bradford was the principal leader of the Pilgrim Fathers. William Brewster, who had a university education, was elder of the church; Edward Winslow, more a man of the world than Bradford, did the Pilgrims diplomatic business. Myles Standish provided the power to their politics. But Bradford, who never left New England after he had once landed there, was the man who made the major decisions. He exercised more plenary authority that any governor of an English colony in his day, with the possible exception of Sir William Berkeley in Virginia.

THE REVEREND WILLIAM BREWSTER

Reverend William Brewster is the 4th great grandfather of Elizabeth Baker, the mother of Sarah Elizabeth Beeman, the wife of Lewis Albert Sweet.

William Brewster was 54 years of age when he came to America on the Mayflower. He was born at Scrooby, Nottingham, England and died at Plymouth in 1643.

He was educated at Peterhouse, Cambridge and after a period of time serving the crown he became the backer of a dissenting group around Scrooby. He, with his group, while under resistance moved to Leyden, Holland thence to the American Colonies.

William Brewster was the driving force that spawned the Pilgrim movement and gave them motive and courage to leave England and seek a new life free of a government dominated religion.

Brewster suffered many hardships not the least of which was prison, hunger and the loss of all his worldly goods. His faith and belief in man's independence and his being a free moral agent made him the father of the concept and practice of religious freedom in America.

IMMIGRANT JOHN HOWLAND

The roots of the Sweet family tree in America trace directly back to immigrant JOHN HOWLAND, son of Henry Howland of Fenton, Huntingtonshire, England and Alice Aires.

John Howland was the 13 signer of the Mayflower Compact. He was baptized 16 January 1602 in Holy Trinity at Eli and died 1 June 1627 in Plymouth, MA at just over 70 years of age.

The earliest account we have if John Howland is recorded in the history of the Pilgrims in their voyage to America. William Bradford first governor of the Colonies, describes this incident on the Mayflower: " In sundrie of these stormes the winds were so feirce; and the seas so high, as they could not beare a knote of saile, but were forced to hull (drift), for diverce days togither. In one of them, as they thus lay at hull, in a might storme, a lustie yonge man (called John Howland) coming upon some occasion above the gratings, was a seele of the shipe (meaning toss in a rough sea) throwne into the sea; but it pleased God that he caght hould of the top-saile halliards, which hunge overboard and rane out at length; yet he held his hould (though he was sundrie fadomes under the water) till he wasd hald up by the same rope to the brime of the water, and then with a boat hooke and other means got into the shipe againe, and his life saved; and though he was something ill with it, yet he lived many years after, and became a profitable member both in church and commone wealth."

The names of all those who participated in the first two expedition on shore from the Mayflower have not been preserved. John Howland was a member of the third expedition on the shallop which left the Mayflower on 16 December 1620 and which participated in the first encounter with the Indians on 18 December 1620 at which was later Eastham and which landed on the Rock at Plymouth and selected that spot as the permanent settlement.

John married before 1624 at Plymouth, Elizabeth, daughter of John and Elizabeth Tilley.

In the spring of 1624 four acres of land were assigned to John who had succeeded to be the head of John Carver's family group. In 1626 he was one of the men who assumed the debt of the Colony. He was an assistant from 1633 to 1635 and elected a Deputy to General Court in 1641. In April 1634 he was in command of the Kennebec trading post when Mr. John Hocking killed one of his men and was in turn killed by another of Howland's men. This caused trouble between Plymouth and Massachusetts Colonies but the matter died out when the true facts were known.

The Sweets' connection to John Howland began when Howland's daughter Hannah married Jonathan Bosworth, Jr. 6 July 1661 in Swansea, MA. Their great granddaughter Elizabeth married Theophilus Sweet about 1750.

The following inscription is found on a slate stone erected by his grave at Plymouth: "Here ended the pilgrimage of JOHN HOWLAND and ELIZABETH his wife. She was the dau'tr of Gov. Carver. They arrived in the Mayflower December 1620. They had 4 Sons & 6 Dau'trs from whom are descended a numerous posterity.

"In 1672 Feb'y 13d JOHN HOWLAND of Plymouth deceased, he lived to the age of 80 yr's (probably in error). He was the last man that was left of those that came over in the Ship called the Mayflower that lived in Plymouth."

It was said of John Howland that he was a godly man and an ancient professor in the ways of Christ.

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places

John Howland and his wife, Elizabeth Tilley, were passengers on the Mayflower to Plymouth in 1620. They had four sons and six daughters, one of whom was Jabez who lived at the house at 33 Sandwich Street in Plymouth. The house was built by Jacob Mitchell about 1667 and sold to Jabez Howland who lived there with his family until he moved to Bristol (now in R. I.) in 1680.

The Howland House is the only house left standing in Plymouth where Pilgrims actually lived. "Owned and occupied by Jabez Howland before the death of his father and mother, it is fair to presume that its floors have been trodden by those two passengers of the Mayflower and that its walls have listened to their voices" (W. T. Davis). The Pilgrims, John and Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland were the father and mother who spent some of their last years in the home of their son.

THE PASSENGERS OF THE MAY FLOWER IN 1620.

BY NATHANIEL BRADSTREET SHURTLEFF, M. D.

As early as the year 1602, several religious people residing near the joining borders of Nottinghamshire, Lincolnshire, and Yorkshire, together with their pious ministers, being grievously oppressed by courts and canons, resolved to shake off the yoke of antichristian bondage, and, as the Lord's free people, to form themselves by covenant into a church-state, to walk in all his ways according to their best knowledge and endeavors, cost them whatever it might.

In the year 1606, by reason of the distance of their habitations, these people were obliged to assemble in two places and become two distinct churches; over one of which Mr. John Smith was established pastor, and among the others were Mr. Richard Clifton and Mr. John Robinson, two very excellent and worthy preachers.

In the fall of 1607, Mr. Clifton and many of his church, being extremely harassed, removed themselves and families to Holland, where, in the spring of 1608, they were followed by Mr. Robinson and the rest. They settled first at Amsterdam, where they remained a year; but finding that Mr. Smith's church, which was there before them, had fallen into contention with others, they, valuing peace and spiritual comfort above other riches, removed with Mr. Robinson, their pastor, to Leyden, Mr. Clifton remaining in Amsterdam, where he soon died.

Soon after their arrival in Leyden, they chose Mr. William Brewster to assist the pastor, as Elder of the Church. In their new place of abode they lived in love and harmony with each other, and on friendly terms of intercourse with their neighbors, till they removed to America.

By the year 1610, many had come over to them from various parts of England, and they had increased and become a great congregation.

In 1617, Mr. Robinson and his church began to think of emigrating to America; and, as a preparatory step, sent Mr. Robert Cushman and Mr. John Carver from Leyden over to England, to treat with the Virginia Company, and also to see if the King would grant them the liberty of conscience there, which was refused them in the land of their birth. Although the agents were not able to obtain from the King their suit for liberty in religion under the broad seal, as was desired, nevertheless, they prevailed so far as to gain the connivance of the King that he would not molest them, provided they carried themselves peaceably. In 1618, the agents returned to Leyden, to the great discouragement of the people who sent them; who, notwithstanding, resolved, in 1619, to send again two agents to agree with the Virginia Company; and at this time they sent Mr. Cushman a second time, and with him Mr. William Bradford, who, after long attendance, obtained the patent granted by the Company to Mr. John Wincob, which was never used.

Notwithstanding all these troubles, so strong was their resolution to quit Leyden and settle in America, that they entered into an arrangement with Mr. Thomas Weston, a merchant of London, for their transportation, and sent Mr. Carver and Mr. Cushman to England, to receive the money of Mr. Weston, to assist in their transportation, and to provide for the voyage. By direction, Mr. Cushman went to London and Mr. Carver to Southampton, where they finally joined with Mr. William Martin, who had been chosen to assist them.

THE PASSENGERS OF THE MAY FLOWER IN 1620.

BY NATHANIEL MORTON, SECRETARY, &c. &c.

A vessel of sixty tons, called the Speedwell, was bought and fitted in Holland, to be used in their transportation, and was designed to be kept for use in their new country. Mr. Cushman, in June, 1620, also hired at London the renowned May Flower, a vessel of ninescore tons, and also Mr. Clarke, the pilot.

Mr. Cushman, having procured the May Flower at London, and fitted it for the voyage, proceeded in it to Southampton, where he and Captain Jones, together with the other agents, remained seven days, until the arrival of the Pilgrims who left Leyden in July, embarking from Delft Haven.

On the 5th of August, both vessels, the May Flower, Capt. Jones, and the Speedwell, Capt. Reinolds, set sail from Southampton. The small vessel proving leaky, they both put in to Dartmouth about the 13th of August, where they remained till the 21st, when they set sail again. Both vessels were obliged to return a second time on account of the leakage of the Speedwell; and this time they put back to Plymouth, where they gave up the small vessel and dismissed those who were willing to return to London, Mr. Cushman and his family returning with them.

On the 6th of September, their number then consisting of one hundred persons, they made their final start, and arrived at Cape Cod on the eleventh day of November, when they signed the famous compact, and landed at Plymouth, in America, on the eleventh day of December, Old Style, or on the twenty-first of December, New Style, in the year 1620.

During their passage, one only died, William Butten, a young man, servant to Mr. Samuel Fuller, the physician of the new colony, who was included in Mr. Fuller's family, according to Governor Bradford, although dead at the time of the signing of the compact.

One person was born during the passage, Oceanus Hopkins, a son of Mr. Stephen Hopkins, who did not survive long after the landing.

At the commencement of the voyage, the number of passengers of the May Flower was one hundred, and at the time of the arrival at Cape Cod Harbor it was the same; one having died, and one having been born, thus preserving the integrity of the number. Both of these persons, however, are numbered among the passengers, and hence the number is generally stated as one hundred and one.

Peregrine White, son of Mr. William White, was born in Cape Cod Harbor, in November, after the signing of the compact and before the landing, and is not included with the voyagers. He enjoyed the distinction of being the first born white child in New England, of the Leyden Pilgrims.

The first child born after the landing on the twenty-second day of December, 1620, was a son of Mr. Isaac Allerton, but it did not survive its birth.

The May Flower has already been stated to have been a vessel of about ninescore tons, and was procured at London by Mr. Robert Cushman, who was debarred the privilege of coming over with the infant colonists, as it was necessary that he should remain in England, to keep together those who were left behind, and to provide for their future emigration, as he had done for that of those of the first passage. This he did by procuring the Fortune, and sailing from London in July, 1621, and arriving in New England on the 9th of November of the same year. It is also highly probable that he obtained the other early vessels, as he continued to be the agent of the Pilgrims till his death, which occurred in England, just as he was ready to come to spend the rest of his days in New England. In 1624, when the first division of land for continuance took place, Mr. Cushman, although in England, was placed at the head of the list of those who came in the May Flower; an act of justice alike creditable to our forefathers and honorable to him.

The May Flower not only brought over the first of the Leyden Pilgrims, but also, in the year 1629, with four other vessels, transported Mr. Higginson and his company to Salem; and in 1630, was one of the fleet which conveyed to New England Mr. Winthrop and the early settlers of the Massachusetts Colony.

A vessel bearing this name was owned in England about fifteen years or more before the voyage of our forefathers; but it would be impossible to prove or disprove its identity with the renowned May Flower, however great such a probability might be. It is known, nevertheless, that this identical famous vessel afterwards hailed from various English ports, such as London, Yarmouth, and Southampton, and that it was much used in transporting emigrants to this country. What eventually became of it, and what was the end of its career, are equally unknown to history.

The following list of passengers is made up from various sources. By referring to the list of those who signed the compact at Cape Cod, taken from Governor Bradford's folio manuscript, we know who signed the compact, and the number of persons in the family of each; who of the signers brought wives, and who died the first winter. By the pocket-book of Governor Bradford we know the names and dates of the deaths of sixteen who died the first season, and how many died before the arrival of the Fortune, on the 9th of November, 1621. By an examination of the Old Colony Records, we know to whom land was assigned in 1624, and what families were extinct at that time; and, as the families were arranged according to the vessel in which they came, and an acre was granted to each individual, we know how many were at that time in each family. Smith has also told us that none of the first planters died during the three years preceding the close of the year 1624. By the division of cattle, in the year 1627, a record of which was made at Plymouth, we know every individual who was living at that date, and the relative age of each person in every family. By wills, records, and gravestones, we know the ages of many of the Pilgrims and their children.

From such materials, and with such authorities, the following table has been constructed; and it is believed, that, although there is a possibility of the existence of small errors which can never be proved, the list is entirely or very nearly correct.

In order to save space and unnecessary printing, and to exhibit more readily for reference some of the most important facts, the following distinctive marks are made use of.

Those who signed the compact at Cape Cod, on the 11th of November, 1620, are in capitals.

In the division of land in 1624, Henry Samson and Humilitie Cooper had land assigned them among those who came in the May Flower, and for this reason they have been generally believed to have been among the passengers of that vessel. If such is the case they can be placed in the family of Mr. Carver better than that of any other. But, as Mr. Cushman is also placed on that list, it may be reasonably inferred that others were put there for some other reasons, as perhaps Samson and Cooper, who are therefore excluded in this account.

John Goodman is marked in Bradford's manuscript as among those who died the first season. But as his name occurs among those who had garden lots in 1620, and also in the division of land in 1623, it must be inferred that he was marked by mistake, or else Mr. Prince committed an error in taking his copy for the Annals.

Three of the wives of the signers were left in Europe; namely, Bridgett, the wife of Dr. Samuel Fuller, Hester, the wife of Francis Cooke, and Elizabeth, the wife of Richard Warren. These afterwards came over in the Ann, in 1623.

Five lost their wives and married again; namely, William Bradford, who married widow Alice Southworth; Edward Winslow, who married widow Susanna White; Isaac Allerton, who married Fear Brewster, and afterwards, Joanna ———; Miles Standish, who married Barbara ———; and Francis Eaton, who married Christian Penn.

Others were married for the first time; namely, John Howland and Elizabeth Carver; George Soule and Mary; Love Brewster and Sarah Collier; John Alden and Priscilla Mullins; Resolved White and Judith Vassal; Giles Hopkins and Catherine Wheldon; Edward Dotey and Faith Clarke; John Cooke and Sarah Warren; Samuel Eaton and Martha Billington.

Several of the Pilgrims had children born in New England, an account of whom may form another article at some future time.

[For the Historical and Genealogical Register.]

Mr. Drake,—The following anecdote, honorable to our Puritan ancestry, has been handed down by tradition. The writer received it more than fifty years ago from a descendant of Samuel Spofford, son of the hero of my story, and whose great age, ninety years, extending from 1653 to 1743, made him a living link between the first and the last generation, through whom persons well known to the writer might, and doubtless did, receive many interesting narratives of the acts and doings of the first settlers of Rowley. He was contemporary with his father, who came over from England more than thirty years before, and with his nephew, my grandfather, who I well remember, twenty-two years.

During a time of great scarcity of corn, probably from the great drought of 1662, John Spofford, then living with his family at Rowley, and being with his neighbors much pinched by the famine, went all the way to Salem to buy corn.

A ship-load of corn had lately arrived there, but the owner, foreseeing greater scarcity and higher prices, refused to open his store and commence dealing it out. Spofford plead the necessity of himself and his neighbors, but his arguments were unheeded, and he had only the prospect of returning without being able to carry bread to his suffering family. After every plea was exhausted to no effect on the heartless merchant, he sternly cursed him to his face! The merchant astonished to hear such language, had him arrested instantly, and arraigned before a magistrate, for profane cursing and swearing. The accused, nothing daunted, informed the magistrate that he had not cursed the merchant profanely but religiously, and producing a Bible, he read Proverbs xi. 26, He that withholdeth corn the people shall curse him, but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it. The authority was deemed decisive, the accused was discharged, and, in accordance with the summary process of those days, the magistrate ordered that the merchant should open his store, and sell him as much corn as he desired at the current price.

This man was afterwards the first settler of Georgetown, in this State, in 1668, and died in 1678; and every one of the name in this country may reckon themselves among his descendants.

Jeremiah Spofford.

DESCENDANTS OF ALICE BRADFORD.

[Communicated by Rev. William Allen, D.D. of Northampton.]

The oldest granddaughter of Gov. Bradford and Alice Southworth was Alice Bradford, the daughter of Maj. William Bradford by his first wife, Alice Richards. Gen. G. M. Fessenden, in his genealogy of the Bradford's, in the N. E. Historical Register for January and July 1850, gives no account of her descendants. Happening to be myself a descendant of Alice Bradford, I am able to supply this deficiency in part.

Alice Bradford married, March 29, 1680, Rev. William Adams, the 2d minister of Dedham, being his 2d wife; Mary Manning of Cambridge was his first. Mr. Adams, by his wife Alice, had three daughters; 1. Elizabeth, born Feb. 23, 1681; she married, first, Rev. S. Whiting of Windham, Sept. 4, 1696, when she was in her 16th year, and her four children were distinguished; first, Col. William Whiting, employed in the French war; second, Rev. John Whiting of the second church in Windham (Scotland parish); and, resigning his office, he was judge of probate and also a colonel; third, Col. Nathan Whiting; fourthly, Mary, born 1712, married Nov. 23, 1727 Rev. Thomas Clap, her father's successor at Windham, and afterwards president of Yale College; she died Aug. 9, 1736, her daughters being Mary Clap, who married Daniel Wooster of New Haven, and Temperance Clap, who married Timothy Pitkin of Farmington.

Rev. S. Whiting died in 1725, and his widow Elizabeth married, in 1737, Rev. Samuel Niles of Braintree; she died at New Haven at her son Nathan's, in 1760.

2. The second daughter of Rev. William Adams by Alice Bradford was Alice, who married in 1701 Rev. Nathaniel Collins, the first minister of Enfield, Conn. She died Feb. 19, 1735; he died in 1756.

3. The third daughter of William and Alice Adams was Abiel, born Dec. 15, 1685, after the death of her father, who died Aug. 17, 1685. About the year 1707 she married Rev. Joseph Metcalf, minister of Falmouth, a native of Dedham, born in 1682, graduated 1703, died May 24, 1723. Joseph and Abiel Metcalf had 11 children, as follows: 1. Abigail; 2. Abijah, both of whom, probably, [died] young; 3. Abiel, married James Fitch of Salisbury; 4. Hannah, married Timothy Metcalf of Mansfield or Lebanon; 5. Alice, married John Williams; 6. Mary, married John Reed or Rudd of Lebanon; 7. Elizabeth, married Rev. Jonathan Lee, the first minister of Salisbury, Conn.; 8. Delight, married Tho. Worcester; 9. Sarah, married James Fowler of E. Haddam; 10. Azubah, married Wm. Williams of Union, Maine; 11. Sybal.

Alice, the widow of Rev. William Adams, married Maj. James Fitch of Norwich, who was born in 1647 and died at Canterbury, his last residence, in 1727, aged 80 years.

Her daughter Abiel, the widow of Rev. Joseph Metcalf, married Rev. Isaac Chauncy of Hadley, who died in 1745. The time and place of her death are not known.

I now proceed to my particular object, the tracing of the descendants of one of the daughters of Mrs. Abiel Metcalf, she (as it may be remembered) being the granddaughter of Major William Bradford. As she is of the 4th generation from Gov. Bradford, her daughter Elizabeth will be marked as of the fifth.
